

Gross Construction Ltd

Building an excellent reputation means providing an exemplary service.

That's exactly what we do.

Finding a building company that you can rely on has never been easy. Until now.

Having forged a reputation for excellence and total reliability, Gross Construction is at the very forefront of the UK Construction Industry. How did we get there? By providing an exemplary service at a sensible price.

What sets us apart is that not only are we able to run multiple projects to exceptional standards, but we also offer a unique combination of quality traditional craftsmanship of the very highest calibre, with an open-minded attitude to everything we do. With this approach, we're able to adopt the most up-to-date developments in building techniques and deliver a first class service every time.

A reliable service you can trust.

Complete peace of mind

Paying particular attention to detail and finishing, we pride ourselves on the craftsmanship of all our services from plumbing, bricklaying, carpentry, painting & decorating, through to refurbishment, electrical installation, tree works and more.

Choosing us means complete peace of mind. From procurement through construction to completion and handover, we have both the structure and the flexibility to undertake a wide range of projects safely, and to an exceptional standard.

Professional, courteous and always punctual

Unlike so many of our competitors, we recognise that there is so much more to construction than tools, skills and hard work. That's why we hand-pick each and every member of our staff to ensure the highly skilled and dedicated tradespeople that carry out all our work are not only the very best, but also 100% professional, courteous and punctual.

About Us

In a fiercely competitive and ever changing industry, Gross Construction's forward thinking and flexible minded management team always has its finger on the pulse.
