

Tired of patronising hard sell sales letters? So are we.

Monk Marketing is a local company with the human touch.

Dear Customer

We all feel the need to express ourselves, be that through the things we say or do. At Monk Marketing South East we recognise that businesses are no different. As consultants to companies, schools and hotels, we're known not only for our cost effectiveness, but also for our range of products. And, believe us, your promotional merchandise speaks volumes about you, whatever product or service you offer.

It's all in the detail

We've been supplying promotional merchandise, corporate clothing and incentive gifts of the highest quality to clients countrywide for years. But what really sets us apart is the particular attention we pay to detail and finishing. And we pride ourselves on our innovative approach to both product and customers, coupled with excellent customer care at competitive prices.

Just tell us

We realise that every business needs to promote itself. That's why we offer an eclectic range with everything from the humble pen through to the latest exciting gadgets to enable you to promote your business professionally and inexpensively the way you want to. Just tell us how you'd like your business to be perceived and we'll do the rest. There really is so much to choose from and our superb new catalogue is the biggest yet!

We have a sourcing office in the Far East where we can find the right product for you or offer you some of the latest products available. Whatever you have in mind, Monk Marketing can source it. This means that whether you're looking for a uniform, a shop item or a pack of branded balloons for a promotion or open day we can competitively supply it. Visit our website to view our full range of over 12,000 items!

Let's meet

I'm enclosing our summer catalogue and some of our summer offers, but why not meet up for a friendly, 'no obligation to buy' chat and I could show you our range and gain a better understanding of your needs? I also have some ideas that I think you'll find extremely useful. Alternatively, you're very welcome to visit our office in Lancing.

No pressure.

Kind regards
